RubyConf Taiwan 2012 Calls for Sponsorship

RubyConf Taiwan (http://rubyconf.tw) is the only and biggest Ruby language conference in Taiwan. This is the third year. we expect to see about 140 Ruby developers, system administrators and programmers in RubyConf Taiwan. There will be speakers from U.S, Japan and Taiwan coming here and sharing their projects and experiences. Currently we have Yukihiro Matsumoto (Ruby creator) and Koichi Sasada (Ruby 1.9 VM Author) as invited speakers.

RubyConf Taiwan 2012 will be held on December 7-8, 2012 in Tianmu Convention Center, Taipei. We've announced the call for proposals from 2012/7 and it will be closed on September 16, 2012. Now we are looking for sponsors, there are three types of plans:

About Ruby Taiwan community
- URL: http://ruby.tw
- Founded October, 2008
- We're Ruby language fans in Taiwan. We hold Ruby Tuesday meetings in Taipei and invite speakers to share their experiences. So far we've held 20 times of Ruby Tuesday meetings since 2008.
